TWO GIRLS.

All alone in the old grand room,
Mid-sunken curtains and splendid gloom,
A girl in her beauty's sighs,
The softened light of the chandeliers,
Missing her diamonds, seek the tears,
That stand in her wistful eyes.

All alone by the castle walls,
Where hardly a ray of starlight falls,
A girl is crouching in dread,
She dare not beg of the churchward's wight,
Guarding the portal in livery bright,
Even a crust of bread.

A gay cavalier comes riding along,
Carelessly singing an amorous song—
"Will he toss her a silver crown?
No, he thinks only of his new love's face,
As he hurries past the familiar place,
And cantors on to town."

"Oh, for a morsel of food!" one groans;
"If he but loved me!" the other moans—
"She comes from a race of nobles,
The beggar outside is not starving alone;
Father in Heaven, who lovest Thine own,
Pity these hungry girls!"

TAKING THE CHANCES.—Several years ago there lived in a country town an old man who had a propensity for stealing small and portable articles that came in his way. As he was poor and past labor, and well known about town, no further notice was taken of his peculiarities than to keep a sharp lookout when he was about. A dealer had a quantity of dry fish landed on the wharf at an hour too late to get them into his shop, and he was about covering them with an old sail-cloth, he espied old Brown, apparently reconnoitering. Selecting a couple of fish, he said: "Here, Brown, I must leave these fish out here to-night, and I will give you these two if you promise me that you will not steal any."
"That is a fair offer, Mr. Allen, but—well—I don't know," with a glance at the proffered fish and then at the pile, "I think I can do better!"

HARBORING HUSBANDS.—It has just been decided by the Superior Court in Cincinnati, that a wife has a vested right in her husband's society and companionship, and can maintain an action for damages for the loss thereof. It appears that the husband had an adopted daughter who was married, and, gradually, he absented himself from his own house until, at last, he resided permanently with these people. The wife brought suit against her husband and the other two for damages for the loss of his company and society. Upon demurrer, the Court ruled that the action would not lie against her husband, but her right of action against those who drew away and harbored her husband was indisputable. Persons will, therefore, take notice that, if they harbor husbands, they are liable to the wives for damages.

WHAT IS MAN.—According to a French statistician, taking the mean of many accounts a man, fifty years of age has slept 6,000 days, worked 5,500 days, walked 800 days, amused himself 4,000 days, was eating 1,500 days, was sick 500 days, etc. He ate 79,000 pounds of bread, 16,000 pounds of meat, 4,000 pounds of vegetables, eggs and fish, and drank 7,000 gallons of liquid, namely tea, coffee, water, beer, wine, etc. altogether. This would make a respectable lake of 300 feet surface and 3 feet deep, on which a small steamboat could navigate.

A PEPPLED FRENCHMAN.—A Frenchman said to an American, "Tere is von vord in your language I do not comprehend, and all ze time I hear. Tattletoo, Tattletoo—vat you means by Tattletoo?" The American insisted that no such a word exists in English. While he was saying so his servant came in to put coal on the fire, when he said, "There John, that'll do." The Frenchman jumped up, exclaiming; "Tere! Tattletoo! you say him yourself, sare. Vat means tattletoo?"

A COMPANY which had been formed in Paris to insure against bombardment, has recently raised its premium from three to three and a half percent.

It is claimed that rats may be effectually driven away by powdering with common pepper the holes through which they get into the houses.

A SMART lad, hearing his mother remark that she was fond of music, exclaimed, "Then why don't you get me a drum?"

THE assessed valuation of real estate property in Cleveland is $50,074,137, an increase in ten years of $35,916,423.

TAKE WARNING!

THE Y. & T. E. R. CO. ARE ANXIOUS TO take due precaution against accidents and loss of life resulting from the running of their trains; and they take this method of warning parents and guardians against the dangers attending the too common practice of children playing about their cars and locomotives. Those having in charge the business of the Company find it impossible to persuade boys, who frequent the termini and stopping places of the road from climbing upon the cars and engines; and they will feel themselves obliged to resort to more decided measures if these annoyances are continued. Recent accidents, which are wholly attributable to the carelessness of persons in jumping on and off the cars when in motion, should be warning enough in themselves. H. M. YERRINGTON, Superintendent.
August 16, 1870.

Estate of Peter Johnson, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE UNDERSIGNED, Public Administrator, and administrator of the above named estate, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against said decedent, to exhibit the same, with the necessary vouchers, within ten months from the first publication of this notice, to the undersigned, at his office, in Carson City, Ormsby County, Nevada.
H. H. BENICE, Administrator.
